Introduction

Sir John Hunt is a place for high quality learning and teaching. All students and staff are entitled to work and learn in a safe, happy and positive environment, which is based upon mutual respect. We believe every student has the right to realise their ambitions in a disruption free environment and this policy forms an important aspect of our behaviour and values curriculum by clearly setting out our expectations of all stakeholders.

Purpose of our Conduct for Learning (CfL) Policy

This policy abides by the legislation and statutory guidance as listed in appendix A and ensures that:

- all of our students, parents/carers, staff and governors are aware of the high expectations of Sir John Hunt CSC through defining what we consider to be acceptable and unacceptable behaviour;
- a safe and positive learning environment is created through the consistent application of rewards and sanctions;
- a consistent approach is adopted by all staff/stakeholders
- difference is embraced, tolerance encouraged and prejudice challenged;
- our students are prepared to become responsible adults
- For further clarification of terms and a list of definitions, refer to appendix B.

Behaviour Principles

We believe that high standards of behaviour lie at the heart of a successful school. Learning should be disruption free in every lesson, every day so that:

- all of our students can make the best possible progress in all aspects of their College life and work;
- all staff are able to teach and promote high quality learning, free of disruption and harassment;
- everyone feels safe and respected in College at all times.

College values

Our behavioural expectations are informed by our College values, which are:

Value	So that...
Ambition
We are determined to achieve success	We can accomplish our goals
We expect the best from ourselves and each other	We can all achieve
We believe there are no limits to what we can achieve	We continually strive to improve
Endeavour
We work hard, always	We improve, every day
We strive for excellence	We are the best we can be
We do not give up	We can overcome any challenge
Respect
We respect ourselves and each other	We all feel valued
We are considerate of others	We all feel safe
We are responsible for our actions	We learn from success and failure

Overview of expectations

Our Behaviour Curriculum outlines specific routines and behavioural expectations of Students/Staff/Parents in relation to all aspects College life and should be read alongside this policy.

Furthermore, our Anti Bullying Policy offers further specific guidance on how we expect students to treat each other with Respect.

Appendix C contains guidance on specific behavioural expectations and signposts to appropriate sources of additional information.

Praise and rewards

“A positive day’s teaching is much less stressful than a negative day’s teaching.”

“Effective praise should be: genuine, purposeful, sincere and specific. Research has shown that by using a minimum of 4:1 praise ratio (i.e. 4 positive statements to 1 negative statement) a positive classroom ethos can be established”. K. Rowland.

We recognise the importance of praise as our primary strategy for promoting the College’s expectations and values leading to increased student motivation and high standards of behaviour. This can take many forms, from the informal verbal dialogue between staff and students, through to the awarding of prizes and awards at whole College events.

The purpose of the praise system is to:

- be clear and simple for students to understand
- promote desired behaviour by acknowledging behaviours, attitudes and successes that exceed expectations
- increase the motivation of students
- enable positive communication with parents/carers
- be easy to operate to enable staff to frequently praise and reward students

Staff - student verbal interactions

We create a learning environment in which the interactions between staff and students are positive. Staff are encouraged to use positive language that highlights to students where they have done well and reinforce our high expectations. Staff will regularly praise students both within and outside of the classroom. Praising students in public sets a clear message to other students regarding expectations.

Staff - student written dialogue

Through the regular monitoring and assessment of students’ work, staff have the opportunity to reward students as part of their feedback. Students will be commended for aspects of their work and skills development, should the work merit such praise.

Staff - Parent/Carer dialogue

Staff may choose to contact parents and carers by telephone, email or e-letter to highlight when a student has been working particularly well or a noticeable improvement has been observed. This allows the student to see that home and College are intrinsically linked, a significant motivating factor.

Character Points

Overview

Our primary method of student reward is our Character points system. This is a College SIMS based system which enables points to be awarded students either through class registers or through individual student profiles.

Financial responsibility is encouraged with students management of their Character Points. Students have the option of spending their points for a range of items in the library, such as stationery, sports and audio equipment, as well as a number of in College items such as skip the lunch queue vouchers. Additionally, students are given the opportunity to donate their points to charities, in line with other College fundraising initiatives. The prizes made available are reviewed regular through Student Voice.

Staff budgets

Staff are encouraged to award character points where students exceed our expectations. Staff usage is monitored by SLT and CLs / PLs and all users are encouraged to issue praise at a minimum ratio of 4:1

Rewards

Character Points are awarded by staff for students demonstrating our values of Ambition, Endeavour and Respect in:

- In lessons
- For taking part in extracurricular clubs
- For representing the College e.g. sports fixtures
- For acting as an ambassador to the College e.g. at Open Events

Celebration of student's achievements

As students reach each key milestone for teacher awarded Character Points they are acknowledged as follows:

- 25 Character Points- Values card from tutors
- 50 Character Points- Certificate from Pastoral Leaders
- 75 Character Points- Certificate from a member of SLT
- 100 Character Points- Certificate from the Vice Principal
- 200 Character Points- Certificate from the Principal
- 200 Character Points in all 3 categories- Character Certificate from the Principal.

To celebrate the academic excellence demonstrated by students, we hold Key Stage Celebration Events. These events are an opportunity for curriculum areas to nominate their subject prizes for the previous year. Pastoral leaders will also celebrate student success termly in our celebration assemblies.

Character League

The Character Points allocated by teachers forms part of our wider Character league which recognises our "role model" students (see Appendix C). The number of points earned in the league will depend upon the priorities of the College but will always recognise and celebrate students with low/no absence, low/no lates, low/no behavioural points and a high number of character points. Examples of other areas that feature include 100% completion of homework, participation in enrichment activities and volunteering. These league points contribute to the tiered termly values reward trips. Further details of the league are available on the College Website

Use of Character data

Character data is made available as follows:

- Weekly to Pastoral Leaders to enable them to discuss with students and celebrate with tutors/in assemblies.
- Weekly to Curriculum Leaders to enable them to monitor which staff are/are not allocating Character Points and address any issues.
- Parents can see the character points their child has earned on the SIMS parent app

- Parents receive biweekly updates on the character league via email.
- Students receive update via the character league board and through tutor activities.

Consequences

When students do not meet our high conduct expectations this constitutes a form of misbehaviour. The degree of misbehaviour will result in a proportionate, graduated and fair consequence, which should:

- only be used when more positive methods of promoting outstanding learning through good behaviour are not working;
- be applied predictably, promptly, calmly but assertively, impersonally and without bias (i.e. it is the negative behaviour that is resulting in the sanction not the student's personality),
- Seek to deter the witnessed behaviour, protect all students, improve the student's behaviour in future
- Take into account all reasonable circumstances e.g., age, SEND, religious requirements etc.

Types of consequence

There are varying levels of consequence that can be applied when a student's conduct fails to meet our expectations:

- Formal verbal warning
- Curriculum Time-Out
- Call Back (10 minutes)
- Detention (30 minutes)
- College Detention (60 minutes)
- Internal Exclusion
- Suspension
- Permanent Exclusion

Formal Verbal Warning

Any expectations not being adhered to in lessons will result in the member of staff issuing a formal verbal warning. It must be made very clear that a FORMAL warning has been issued e.g.

"Student A, this is your formal warning".

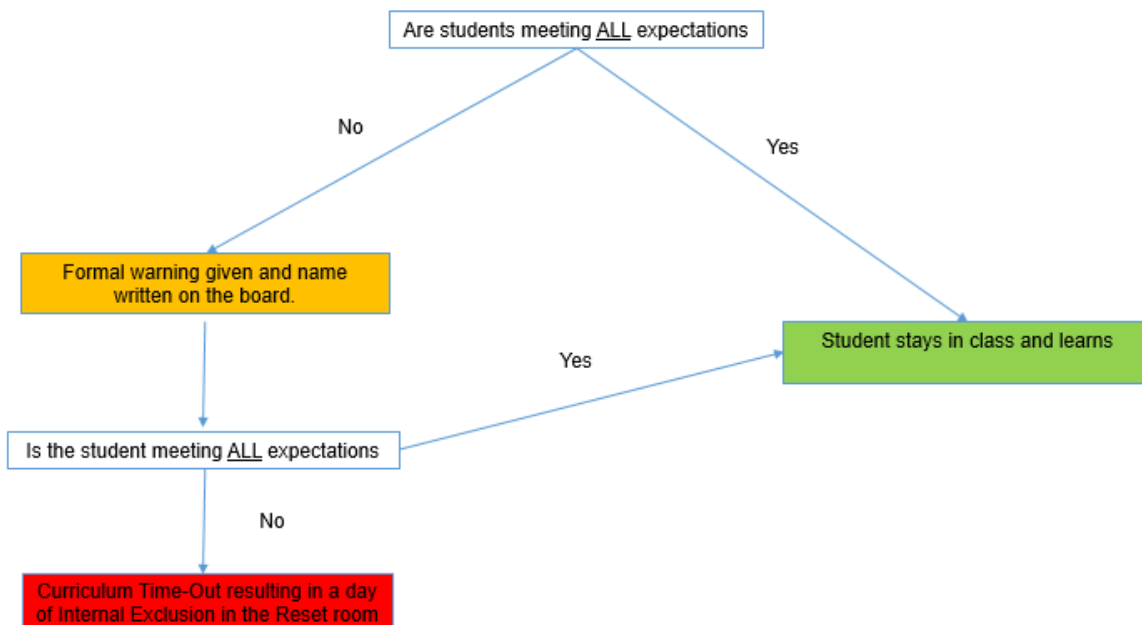

Members of staff need to respond to student misbehaviour in a decisive, clear and calm manner when communicating the warning. It is important that, at all times, the student, the member of staff and the rest of the class, know exactly which warnings have been issued and to whom. Staff must write the names on the board of any students who have received a formal warning.

Curriculum Time-Out

If, after an appropriate amount of "take-up time", a student fails to respond to their formal warning they will receive a Curriculum Time-Out. This will result in the student sitting an Internal Exclusion in the Reset room where they will engage in a meaningful adapted curriculum focusing on their core subjects. The staff member should make it clear to the student what is happening and why e.g.

"Student A, you have not responded to your formal warning and so you will now have a Curriculum Time out."

In summary students have one simple choice, either to be in class working with endeavour and engaging with their learning or to be separated from their peers. This is a simple binary process:

Call-back

A Call-back can be given when a member of staff requires the student to return to them at breaktime, lunchtime or after College for 10 minutes without the need to contact home.

A Call-back can be issued when there is:

- concern about a student's progress in their lesson;
- lack of care or pride in a student's work;
- poor behaviour and attitude in the lesson;
- an issue relating to homework.

Detention (30 minutes)

A 30 minute Detention may be set where a student's conduct has not met the expectations of a member of staff. This may be issued as an escalation following a number of call backs, for ongoing disruption within a lesson which did not meet the threshold for a CTO such as being more than 2 minutes late to the lesson, not working to their full potential for the whole lesson, or misbehaviour at break or lunch time.

College Detention (1 hour)

College detentions are held centrally and wherever possible undertaken on the same day, providing that parents have been notified and there are no undue safeguarding concerns e.g., they need to pick up younger siblings that evening.

If a student does not complete their detention/misses a detention they will receive an Internal Exclusion.

Internal Exclusion

If a student is issued with a day of Internal Exclusion in the Reset room they must complete at least three lessons and miss as least one session of their free time under exam conditions. Should a student not produce sufficient work while working in the Reset room then their Pastoral Leader or a member of the Senior Leadership team may recommend that a student remains in there for additional periods and/or receives a College Detention.

Students who cannot meet the expectations in the Reset Room will be issued with a Suspension.

Off-site direction

In order to support a student to engage in their learning we may direct a student to another provision examples include:

1. Providing a Short-Term Placement at a host school to complete a period of reflection (between 1-5 days). In these circumstances the student will only return to us once their placement has been completed to the host school's satisfaction.
2. Providing a medium-term alternative package of offsite education with a College approved provider. Students will be offered a bespoke curriculum in an attempt to engage them in their learning.

In partnership with students and their parents we may also consider:

3. Providing a medium-term placement at another mainstream school (between 6-12 weeks). During this time students will engage in the host school's curriculum as if they were their student. The purpose of the placement is to see if a student can engage positively in a new setting. If the placement is successful, it may be possible for a student to transfer permanently to the host schools roll.

Exclusions

Exclusions are regarded as a last resort when all other possible methods of managing student behaviour have been exhausted. The decision to exclude is never taken lightly and careful consideration is taken of the facts and the surrounding circumstances before reaching a decision to exclude.

We recognise the potential detrimental impact of exclusion on both the education and wellbeing of students and their families. We also recognise the impact of social exclusion, which can result from the permanent exclusion of a student and will try hard to avoid it, involving parents as early as possible in any process. This policy for exclusions should be considered within the context of the policies listed in appendix A, notably "Suspension and Permanent Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England including pupil movement. "The decision to exclude is made solely by the Principal, or the Vice Principal /designate in their absence.

In making a decision to exclude the Principal will:

- ensure that a thorough investigation has been carried out;
- consider all the supporting evidence;
- allow and encourage the student to give their version of events;
- keep a written record of the actions taken including the signed incident logs of witnesses;
- ensure that all procedures have been carried out properly;
- ensure SEND advice has been taken into account where appropriate;
- ensure that parents have been kept informed throughout the process and consulted where appropriate.

The standard of proof applied when deciding to exclude is on the 'balance of probabilities'.

Exclusion will not be used as a consequence for the following:

- minor incidents such as a failure to complete homework*;
- lateness or truancy*;
- breaches of College rules on uniform or appearance*;
- as a punishment for the behaviour of their parent/carer.

* Except where these are persistent or in open defiance of such rules;

Once the decision has been made to exclude, a student will only be sent home once contact has been made with parents/carers and where it is clear that the student will be returning to a place of safety. Tasks will be provided via Homework platforms.

Suspensions (previously referred to as Fixed Term Exclusions)

The decision to suspend a student for a fixed term may be taken in response to breaches of the College's Conduct for Learning policy.

Examples of the more serious misbehaviour that may lead to a suspension include but are not limited to the following:

- indecent behaviour;
- foul language or abuse language directed at a member of staff (loud enough to be heard)
- discriminatory language
- high level vandalism or misuse of College equipment e.g. deliberate damage
- bringing in illegal items (breaking the law) including vapes/cigarettes/tobacco
- Under the influence of illegal drugs or other substance;
- theft;
- actual or threatened violence against another student or a member of staff;
- sexual abuse, harassment or assault;
- persistent bullying including cyberbullying.
- refusing a bag search where there is no good reason to do so;
- inappropriate recording/filming/sharing of media;
- failure to meet the standards of internal exclusion;
- persistent poor behaviour contrary to College expectations.

This is not an exhaustive list and there may be other examples of behaviour where the Principal judges that exclusion is an appropriate sanction. Where a student is suspected of carrying an offensive weapon or misusing/carrying/supplying an illegal substance or being part of a group involved in such activity but the evidence is not sufficient the principle of the balance of probability will be adopted.

The Principal may exclude a student for one or more fixed periods. In cases where the total length of suspensions will exceed 45 College days in any one College year, or 15 days in any 2 College terms a governors review must take place.

During a suspension of 5 or fewer days, tasks will be provided through online homework platforms.

For an exclusion of longer than 5 days, the College will arrange fulltime educational provision from the sixth day of exclusion.

Following the suspension, parents/carers will be invited to attend a reintegration/readmittance meeting at the College with their son/daughter. The purpose of the meeting is to ensure that the student understands the reason for the exclusion and is committed to preventing the behaviour that led to the exclusion from being repeated with support from their parents. The College will consider all further support needed to help the student, including referral to external agencies if appropriate.

During the first five days of any exclusion, the parents of an excluded student must ensure that they are not present in a public place during normal College hours without reasonable justification, whether with or without a parent/carer. Failure to comply with this is an offence for which a Local Authority fixed penalty notice can be issued.

Disciplinary Stages

Each time a student receives a suspension their Disciplinary stage is reviewed. Each Disciplinary stage provides a framework to ensure potential underlying causes of unacceptable behaviour are identified. The conduct support plans which are created at each stage seek to include the views of the Pastoral leader, student, parents and other relevant outside agencies. The plans explore reasonable adjustments and appropriate interventions to enable the student to meet our expectations and reengage in their learning. An outline of the Disciplinary stages and interventions can be found in appendix D.

Permanent Exclusion

Permanent exclusion is an extremely rare sanction at the College and always avoided wherever possible. The decision to permanently exclude is taken only:

- in response to serious breaches of the College's Conduct for learning policy;
- in response to persistent breaches of the College's Conduct for learning policy and;
- if allowing the student to remain would seriously harm the education or welfare of that student or others at the College.

A student may be permanently excluded where there have been repeated breaches of the Conduct for Learning policy for which a range of consequences and strategies have been applied without success. It is an acknowledgement that the College has exhausted all available strategies for dealing with the student and is a last resort.

Lines in the Sand

There are exceptional circumstances where, in the judgement of the Principal it will be necessary to permanently exclude a student for a first or 'one off' offence. There are simply some behaviours that we will not tolerate. An indicative but not an exhaustive list would include;

- swearing at the Principal;
- serious actual and/or malicious or threatened violence against another student or a member of staff;
- serious or persistent bullying including cyberbullying.
- being under the influence an illegal substance (including drugs, alcohol or other chemical substances which produce similar effects to illegal drugs and alcohol) and/or in possession of such substances and/or supplying these substances.
- carrying an offensive weapon (schools have the power to search pupils for weapons and other banned items or substances.);
- terrorism, extremist behaviour, radicalisation or the brainwashing of others;
- sexual abuse or assault;
- arson;
- Theft of high value goods / from a member of staff;

The College operates a 'zero tolerance' approach to the carrying of offensive weapons and the carrying and supplying of illegal substances. This is communicated clearly to students in assemblies through our Personal Development Curriculum

Persistent Disruptive Behaviour

There are circumstances where, in the judgement of the Principal it will be necessary to permanently exclude a student for a series of sustained and persistent offences which is to the detriment of the student and/or other students education and/or welfare.

Communicating exclusions to Parents/Carers

Following any decision to exclude, the Principal must inform parents/carers putting the decision to exclude in writing and stating the date the exclusion takes effect.

The letter will explain:

- the reason(s) for the exclusion;
- the period of a fixed period exclusion or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent;
- parents' right to make representations about the exclusion to the governing board and how the pupil may be involved in this;
- how any representations should be made;
- where there is a legal requirement for the governing board to consider the exclusion, that parents have a right to attend a meeting, to be represented at that meeting (at their own expense) and to bring a friend.

In cases where a child is LAC or has a social worker the pastoral team must also inform the students key worker of the exclusion.

Governing Body Committee

The Governors have the responsibility for reviewing decisions made in relation to exclusions.

Governing Body Committee will automatically review any exclusion which results in a student being excluded for more than 15 College days in any one term, or any permanent exclusion.

Parents/carers have the right to appeal the decision to exclude their son/daughter.

A parent/carer may request that the committee review the process within 50 College days of receiving notice of the exclusion. The request should be made in writing and should set out the question(s) which they wish the Behaviour Committee to consider. The committee will respond in writing within 15 College days.

Following the Principal's decision to permanently exclude, the Governing Body Committee must meet to review the decision within 15 College days of receiving notice of the exclusion. If the Committee upholds the Principal's decision to permanently exclude, parents/carers may appeal to an Independent Review Panel.

An Independent Review Panel will consist of 3 people and will be chaired by a lay member and two other independent members, one with governance experience; the other with Headship experience. This panel will decide whether to uphold the decision to exclude a student.

The Independent Review Panel can either uphold the decision to exclude the student or recommend that the College reconsiders the matter. They cannot, however, direct the reinstatement of the student.

Behaviour outside of the College gates

We may sanction students, up to and including Permanent Exclusion, for any behaviour which contravenes our policies when a student is:

- taking part in any College organised or related activity;
- travelling to or from College and wearing our uniform;
- in some other way identifiable as a Sir John Hunt Student

Or for behaviour which at any time:

- could have repercussions for the orderly running of the College;
- poses a threat to another student or member of the public;
- could adversely affect the reputation of the College.

Malicious allegations

Where a pupil makes an accusation against a member of staff and that accusation is shown to have been malicious, the Principal will discipline the pupil in accordance with this policy.

Use of reasonable force

In some circumstances, staff may use reasonable force to restrain a pupil to prevent them:

- causing disorder/committing an offence
- hurting themselves or others;
- damaging property

Incidents of physical restraint must:

- always be used as a last resort;

- be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible;
- be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned;
- never be used as a form of punishment;
- be recorded and reported to parents.

Reasonable force may also be used by the pastoral team when conducting a search for prohibited items e.g. knives, alcohol,

The DfE guidance “Use of reasonable force” (listed in appendix A) must be followed at all times

Searching, screening and confiscation

Members of the Senior Leadership team and Pastoral team can search a pupil for any item, if the student agrees. Only the Principal, and Senior Leadership team are able to utilise the statutory power to search students or their possessions (including mobile devices), without consent, where they have reasonable grounds for suspecting that they may have a prohibited item.

A search without consent should where possible, be undertaken by a member of staff who is the same gender as the student being searched; there must also be a witness (also a staff member) and again where possible, they should be the same gender as the student being searched. The search should be limited to outer clothing (any clothing not worn next to the skin or immediately over a garment that is being worn as underwear).

A student who refuses to be searched may be refused entry on the College premises and the absence will be treated as unauthorised. If the student is already in College and refuses to be searched the balance of probability will apply and the student could be sent home on an initial suspension pending further investigation.

There is a limited exception to this rule. Any member of the Pastoral team can carry out a search of a student of the opposite sex and without a witness present, only when it is believed that there is a risk that serious harm will be caused to a person if the search is not conducted immediately and where it is not reasonably practicable to summon another member of staff.

Searches without consent are only carried out on the College premises or, if elsewhere, where the member of staff has lawful control or charge of the pupil, for example on College trips in England or in training settings. The powers to search for prohibited items in the Education Act 1996 are compatible with Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights.

A list of prohibited items can be found in appendix B. The staff conducting the searches must adhere to the guidance DfE guidance “Searching, screening and confiscation” as listed in appendix A.

Confiscation of items

Any prohibited item found as a result of a search will be confiscated. Items confiscated will be handled according to the DfE guidance “Searching, screening and confiscation” as listed in appendix A.

Furthermore, staff can seize any prohibited item found as a result of the search if they consider it harmful or detrimental to College discipline.

ii) Students use of Mobile phones and digital devices

We acknowledge that many students will want to bring a mobile device to College with them to allow them to communicate with family and friends on the way to and from school. Although we allow students to bring mobile phones and devices to College they are not required for lessons and as such the College is a mobile phone and device free zone: we therefore take no responsibility for loss or damage of a mobile device that a student chooses to bring on site.

Free from the distractions of mobile phones we want students to spend:

- more time working hard in class
- more time talking to each other in their break and lunch times
- more time building positive relationships

The Mobile Phone and Device Free Zone exists:

- Inside the school gates
- Between start of Roll Call and the end of the College Day
- Inside the College building at all times

Students' phones and devices must be switched off and packed away in bags. They must not be seen or heard anywhere on College site.

Sixth Form can access their devices at break and lunch time and are able to use their headphones in the afternoon in the Sixth Form Centre only.

What devices are included?

The rule covers all mobile phones, headphones and other devices that can be connected to the internet or mobile networks or play music or games or take photos, such as iPods, game handsets, tablets and smartwatches. Students may continue to use College devices, such as tablets and computers under the supervision of school staff.

What if parents and children need to make contact?

- Parents should call the College 01752 201020
- Staff will assess any requests from students for them to call home. Where it is necessary, students will be given the opportunity to use the College phone system at break or lunchtime.

What if I have my phone or device out?

We operate a "see it, hear it, take it" approach. If any of the devices are seen or heard on the College site, they will be confiscated immediately and stored securely. The device will be returned to parents only, who will be required to come to the College reception to recover the device. Further confiscations will result in students having to hand in the device at the start of each day and may lead to the school withdrawing the right for a student to bring phones or other devices onto the school site. Students may also receive a sanction.

Students must never take photos, film or record students on school grounds or when wearing College uniform.

iii) Ensuring a smoke free campus

No student will smoke/vape on Sir John Hunt CSC grounds or when recognisable as a Sir John Hunt Student.

The consequences are:

- Smoking/vaping will lead to a one-day Internal exclusion in the first instance;
- having smoking related paraphernalia even if not caught smoking will lead to a day in internal;

- all tobacco/vapes and will be disposed of;
- associating with smokers/vapers but not caught smoking will result in a College detention
- refusal to hand over smoking/vaping paraphernalia when asked will lead to a suspension.

Any staff witnessing/suspecting smoking/vaping should refer to the Pastoral leader(s) for the year group. The College may elect to conduct random tests of Vapes/Tabacco to ascertain their content. Where the tests are positive for banned substances appropriate sanctions will be considered by the Principal up to and including a permanent exclusion.

iv) Swearing

The College operates a zero-tolerance approach to swearing. If it is loud enough to be heard, it is loud enough to be punished. The consequence of the poor language will be based upon the context, swearing at a member of staff will always constitute a suspension.

The consequences are:

- Swearing / foul language not directed at an individual (loud enough to be heard) – College detention
- Swearing / foul language about a member of staff or another student (loud enough to be heard) – a day in Internal exclusion
- Foul language or abusive language directed at a member of staff (loud enough to be heard) – suspension
- Swearing at the Principal will lead to a permanent exclusion

Any staff hearing a student swear should refer to the Pastoral leader(s) for the year group.

v) Dealing with child-on-child sexual violence and harassment

As with all areas of behaviour the sanctions imposed on a student will depend upon the extent, persistence and nature of the offence. The College will not tolerate any forms of sexual violence and/or harassment and recognises that they exist on a continuum and that the two areas can overlap.

The College recognises that it must address all inappropriate behaviour, and it will not accept the normalisation of sexually abusive language as “banter”. Sanctions will be enforced to avoid lower levels of inappropriate behaviour escalating. Staff should try to avoid terms such as “victim and alleged perpetrator” with students as they may not be comfortable with this language.

Staff should also be mindful of the fact that students with SEND or are part of the LGBTQ community are more likely to be targeted by their peers. The College’s Safeguarding policy should also be consulted to ensure the “victim” is given the correct pastoral support.

Cases will be considered on a case-by-case basis through consultation with the College’s designated safeguarding lead, including appropriate sanctions for proven invented or malicious allegations.

Where our expectations are not met students can expect a sanction and for persistent offences for the sanction to escalate in severity.

vi) Exceptions / adjustments to expectations

Students who have an Educational Health Care Plan or an identified additional need(s) must also follow the Conduct for Learning policy.

However, reasonable adjustments may be made for some individuals. Advice from the College’s Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Department and from external agencies when appropriate will be taken and communicated to all staff. Alternative strategies will be employed as agreed with all stakeholders at regular SEND review meetings of the Individual Support Plan (ISP).

Staff can refer to the student’s SEND file, Tickets to Learning (T2L) and Health Care Plans for further information. Some students may need a differentiated approach and interventions in order to break down their individual barriers to learning and understanding. Further guidance is available from the SEND and Pastoral Team.

The Principal may use discretion in applying certain sanctions where a student has displayed significant improvements in their conduct over a significant period of time.

These indicators give students and staff a clear understanding of our expectations for student conduct:

Appendix D Disciplinary stages and interventions

Disciplinary stages provide a clear structure of interventions which must be offered to a student. They are reviewed annually and are designed to monitor a student's behaviour more closely over a short to medium term timescale, as well as offering a range of supportive strategies personalised to the student's particular needs. The table below outlines the range of interventions offered at each stage. The further a student progresses through the stages the less tenable their place at the College becomes.

At each of the disciplinary stages a range of interventions are considered. These include seeking support and assessments from our SEND and Pastoral team as well as from external agencies. Opportunities for the student to experience alternative education are also considered. The purpose of each disciplinary stage is to offer incremental support and advice in order to reengage the student in their learning. Examples of the support offered includes:

Conduct Support Plans

At each stage of the disciplinary process, the Pastoral leader with support from senior colleges where relevant will meet with the student and parent at a reintegration meeting to;

- ascertain if anything is happening at home which may explain their poor behaviour;
- ascertain if anything is happening at College which may explain their poor behaviour;
- reestablish College expectations;
- agree targets for the student;
- agree support from the College;
- agree and seek parental support for interventions

Reports

After each lesson, a student will be required to gain feedback from their teacher on their conduct and learning. At the end of the day, the student should take the report to their designated member of staff to allow them to monitor the students' progress in relation to their targets. This allows careful lesson by lesson monitoring and appropriate reinforcement to encourage the student to reengage. It also allows patterns of behaviour to be identified.

SEND support

In some cases, a student's failure to meet our expectations may be the result of an unknown/undiagnosed SEND need. At each stage of the disciplinary stages advice from our SEND team will inform future interventions including the appropriate form of learning support e.g. educational psychology.

Multi agency support

In some cases, a student's failure to meet our expectations may be the result of an unknown incident / environment to which the student has been exposed. At each stage of the disciplinary stages advice from our Pastoral team will inform future interventions including the appropriate form of early help e.g. CAMHs, Social Care, EWO, EHAT, TAM.

Alternative provision

The College has two main forms of alternative provision that can be organised for students as appropriate:

Onsite alternative provision

Our onsite provision offers a flexible approach to learning in which a full assessment of student needs can be carried out. Consideration is given to alternative timetable arrangements (full/part time) to enable the College to support the student in overcoming barriers to learning and to integration back into lessons.

Alternative provision

Students may be directed off-site to attend alternative provision. Offsite provision offers a flexible approach to learning away from the College site when it is appropriate for a student to be educated in an alternative setting. This could take a number of forms depending on the student's age, needs and aspirations but would be a bespoke short-term package with a recognised College approved alternative education provider.
